At these functions Mrs. Ballard will wear the gown which her mother wore at her first reception in the east following her marriage. The gown was remodeled for Miss Fish at the time of her marriage this fall.

An at home for 200 guests given by Mrs. A. B. France and Mrs. Edgar France at their home, 417 W. Coffey av., was one of the charming affairs of Friday afternoon. The house was graciously arranged with chrysanthemums, the living rooms and parlor with yellow and white and the dining room in pink. The centerpiece at the table was an elaborate basket of pink and white chrysanthemums. Pink shaded candles and cakes and confections in the same colors bore out the scheme.

The hostesses were assisted in the dining room by Mrs. Frank Whitehall, Mrs. Charles R. Huff, Mrs. Horace Reynolds, Mrs. W. R. Spencer and Mrs. Thomas Morrison. Those assisting in the other rooms included Mrs. George Reynolds, Mrs. Charles L. Ziegler, Mrs. W. L. Kizer, Mrs. W. D. Gish and Mrs. Louis LaPierre. Harp selections were given during the afternoon by Irvin Dolk.

A delightful paper on "Colonial Furnishings" was read by Mrs. T. J. Swantz before the Daughters of the American Revolution at their meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. C. Paxton, 465 Lament terrace. A social hour followed the reading of the paper and the hostess served dainty refreshments. The next meeting of the chapter will be in one month at the home of Mrs. Stuart Mackibbin, 623 Portage av.

A luncheon for 12 guests was given Friday afternoon by Mrs. Rome C. Stephenson at her home on Riverside drive as a courtesy to Mrs. Henry Webb Johnson and her daughter, Miss Sadie Johnson, guests of Mrs. Elmer Crockett.

Although the affair was much smaller than had been expected, the thrills given Friday afternoon to the members of the six Women's Christian Temperance unions of the county at the home of Mrs. Timothy Shanafelt, 1025 Riverside drive, was delightful. There were only 45 members of the various unions present, but they enjoyed excellent reports of the national and world conventions of the W. C. T. U. given by Mrs. Isaac Staples and Mrs. Rose Pearce, respectively. After the reports, dainty refreshments were served.

The second section of the department of literature of the Progress club met Friday afternoon. Mrs. Homer Fassnacht read a paper on "Hugo's Poetry" and Miss Margaret Myers on "Hugo's Later Life". In two weeks the program will be in charge of Mrs. Grace Pink Davis.

Twelve friends of Miss Elsa Ver Weide were delightfully entertained Friday evening with a box party at the Orpheum, followed by refreshments at the Philadelphia.

Mrs. Thaddeus Taylor, 531 S. St. Joseph st., entertained at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon with a luncheon for Mrs. Henry Webb Johnson and Miss Sadie Johnson. Covers were placed for ten.

The Diamond av. thrills were entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. Frank Keller, 742 Diamond av. Dainty refreshments were served during the social hour. The club will meet Dec. 10 with Mrs. Carter, 720 Diamond av.

HOW TO ARRANGE THE TABLE FOR THE THANKSGIVING DAY FAMILY REUNION AND HOW TO HAVE LOTS OF FUN

BY ADELE MENDEL

The celebration of Thanksgiving day seems to center around the dinner table. The delicious sight it is on this day is a holiday to see the members of the family from far and near reuniting on this occasion. As the early celebrations were necessarily simple, it is more in keeping with the event to include in the menu dishes suggestive of those partaken of in olden times. If you have any old dishes or pewter ware, use them on this day.

As the family group includes both old and young plan your entertainment so as to be equally enjoyable for all ages. If cost is a consideration, you can make your table appear very attractive by keeping in mind the old-fashioned simplicity of by-gone days.

The table pictured would be very appropriate for a "family" reunion. A flower of decorative centerpiece showing a country scene with its majesty, the turkey, strutting about is attached to the table cover by means of a rope of twisted paper in autumn coloring of red and yellow. The fruit basket, the center of the table is a distinctive feature. Seasonable vegetables may also be combined with the fruit with very good effect.

If you do not possess an artistic basket, you can make quaint shaped ones by covering a cardboard with twisted green or brown rope, crepe paper and pasting one row after another to the basket shape.

The candle shades are covered in grape design crepe paper with a fringe of green fringed paper. The little ice cups can be made similar to the big basket and are trimmed with small clusters of grapes.

Artificial bon bon cups are similar in design to the ice cups with small gobblers pasted on the sides. The turkeys which ornament the place cards can be painted on cardboard or cut out of a paper napkin and mounted on the cardboard. If you secure baby pictures of your guests they could find their places in that manner.

A vegetable basket for each place is easily made. Carrots, radishes, potatoes or any vegetable may be used. You can make the legs of inches and the eyes of beads. Around the neck tie a cord with a merry gingle written on it expressing a sentiment why you are thankful that each guest is present.

Raisin men with marshmallow hats and cloves for feet are also cunning. If you are planning games for after the feast, must sport can be derived out of old-time amusements of Thanksgiving character. An old-fashioned taffy pull would give pleasure to those of different ages. Or have a contest to see who can string the longest chain of cranberries within a stated time.

Another clever way to decorate a table is to have a centerpiece of wheat standing in the center of the table. Around the wheat could be scattered grains of corn, little papier mache turkeys could be placed as if they were eating the corn.

Spinning wheels cut out of cardboard could be at each place. Names should be written in old English. As the Indians figured so conspicuously in the early Thanksgiving days, how would it be to have the waiters dressed as an Indian squaw?

ENTERTAIN FOR WEDDING PARTY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—The president and Mrs. Wilson entertained at dinner at the white house Friday night in honor of their daughter, Miss Jessie Wilson, and Francis B. Sayre, who are to be married next Tuesday. It was the first white house function given for the young people.

All of the members of the wedding party were among the guests, who included Winifred T. Dennison, Assistant Attorney general; Maj. Planton Winship, John H. Knapp, Dr. Cary T. Grayson, aide to the president; Felix Frankfurter of the bureau of Insular Affairs; Lieut. B. O. Dunn, U. S. N., and Misses Maitland Marshall of Washington, Ruth Hall of Washington, Lucy and Mary Smith of New Orleans; Eleanor and Margaret Wilson and Helen Woodrow Bones.

The license for the white house wedding was issued late Friday, the task of securing it having been entrusted to the veteran chief usher, J. H. Hoover, in order not to attract attention. Mr. Hoover appeared at the city hall with all the information necessary and authorized to speak for the distinguished young couple.

TELLS OF WORK DONE IN MONTESSORI SCHOOL. Points strong and weak in the Montessori educational system were brought out Friday afternoon in a talk by Mrs. Alma O. Ware of the Kindergarten Training school before members of the S. B. T. S. Alumni association and teachers and principals of the public school in the rooms of the Training school.

Mrs. Ware took a summer observation course in the Chicago university Montessori school and presented an interesting way Friday the conclusions which she had drawn. Much that Madame Montessori presents as new, said Mrs. Ware, has been threshed out in American schools long ago. That the method cannot be generally applied to the American child was brought out in her statement that it is largely adapted to the sub-normal child while most American children are super-normal. The individual in the child, also, said Mrs. Ware, is too much emphasized when he is old enough to be in group relations.
